IN STEPHEN FOSTER PLAY

Bette Cooper, better known as Miss America of 1937, played the role of Susan Pentland in the play, STEPHEN FOSTER, by Earl Hobson Smith, at Centenary Junior College, Hackettstown, New Jersey. This was Miss Cooper's first public appearance in dramatics and singing. Susan Pentland inspired Foster to write many of his greatest songs, including "Oh Susannah!" "Jeanie With the Light Brown Hair," and "Swanee River."
